Homeward Bound Cat!!

We've all heard of dogs travelling long distances to find their way home, but a cat? Recently in Narre Warren, Victoria, a cat found its way home after hitching a ride in a family member's car. The cat must have slipped into the car and fallen asleep. When the car made its first stop the distressed feline jumped out only to find herself over 20kms from home. The owner put up wanted posters in the area and had a few genuine sightings about her cat, Snowball.

In a built up area with lots of traffic, she held little hope for the cat's return even though she offered a $500 reward. However, on Easter Sunday at 2 am, after being missing for about four weeks, the adventurous feline was found meowing on the front door. Snowball was greeted by her jubilant owner and her brother who has also missed her terribly.

Animal Property Laws

(non-negotiable!)

Ever wondered why its so hard to get your favourite item back from a puppy or a pesky parrot?

1. If I like it, it's mine.
2. If it's in my mouth, it's mine.
3. If I can take it from you, it's mine.
4. If I had it a little while ago, it's mine.
5. If it's mine, it must never appear to be yours in any way.
6. If I'm chewing something up, all the pieces are mine.
7. If it just looks like mine, it's mine.
8. If I saw it first, it's mine.
9. If you are playing with something and you put it down, it automatically becomes mine.
10. If it's broken, it's yours.
